The present condition of our country is such that no mans' life is safe. This state of things has been caused to exist by bodies of persons of various sizes, traveling the country in masks or disguises, committing all sorts of crimes, from the lowest to the highest -even unto murder. Up to this time it has been impossible to detect, apprehend or punish. these desperadoes. The crisis must come; the point of time must arrive when a material change must take place; the question naturally presents itself whether civil government can be maintained and the guilty brought to justice. Is there any remedy to avert the evil and maintain peace and good order in society? There are two reinedies, either of which would be effectual: First-the community in which a crime is committed as a general rule has the power to detect and apprehend all violators of the law. If this should be done the remedy would be ample, and peace and quiet would be restored.

But, alas! where is the community that has even attempted to rise up in its might and pursue, apprehend, and bring to punishment, these midnight assassins?

Men who encourage those acts are equally guilty with those who commit them; and those who sympathize with them are likewise guilty, tend to keep them as they the Institution. though in a less degree; and a have in this instance. community which sleeps in its lethargy, and use no effort to apprehend those offenders, pile upon themselves a mountain of disgrace that can never be removed, for no honest man will brought against Judge Jones.

MADAME DELACHA P

Alone in a Mountain Gorge

Snugly ensconsed amid the wilds of one o the Middle States, lived Madame Delachamps, many years ago, with no known protector. save a faithful dog that ever stood beside her to defend in time of need. Her small, mosscovered cabin, wrapped with wild-rose and honeysuckle, appeared hid away by a cluster of undergrowth, and closely environed on the north and east by a deep, craggy ravine that led away back to the mountain gorge.

Here, snifting the ambient air, waited from nature's green award clinging to the mountain side, bathing her brow in early morn's gentel dewdrop, she lived solitary and alone for A needless inquiry—When you take a "stitch in time" do you hein-brace an opportunity? We frequently aroused her from pleasent midnight

Now and then she would emerge from her unknown home and mingle with the inhabitants around about for one or two months at could walk from root to roof on a time, She was eccentric in her acts and all viewed her as a living curiosity.

While 'rom home, she apparently had but one object, and that was the relief of her afflic-ted sex. Under a belt on her side, could beseen an oldfashioned drik of considerable size, how I do wish that this was called ped across her shoulder was suspended a curi-

This bag contained some old parchment, curious relics, a few light garments, and a smaller sack containing a course powder made from certain roots known only to herself, the secret o Winans-No: I've got over church at Portland, with a salary which she clung to as with the tenacity death. She salled fith from he wild mountain home, to act the Good Samaritan, with this unknown vegetable power which she claimed possessed a wonderful power over all with immense gravity, the further," said a physician to a Diseases incident to the female sex, She female patient : "A little furth- termed it "womb physic," with which she proer, ma'm, if you please—a little further still." "Why, doctor, do charge. With such singular magic did she woman's tongue?" cried the fair years her name and fame become known 'ar and wide, and hundreds of suffering females applied for relief and returned to their homes healthy and happy. Many were anxious to know her great secret, and large sums of money were offered it she would divulge it -but she stubbornly refused.

During her solitary lite, she became intimate with only one woman, a noted mid wile some miles distant, to whom she promis-

Before dying. In a few years, as the sombre shades of night began to close around her tottering ir me, she imparted this great secret to this friend.

She too gained quite a reputation for relieving the suffering of her sex, and strange it may appear -she scarcely ever failed to cure those old chronic female complaints that had resisted all ordinary modes of treatment. Many years ago, the writer of this, while engaged in the Practice of Medicine, by a little strategy, succeeded in procuring the secret of this wonderful vegetable Regulator, which had never been konku to the Medical Protes

He care it a fair impartial trial in the treatment of various forms and stages of female complaints with such decided satisfaction, that in 1860 he called public attention to its

"Gross' Medico Chirurgical Review."

Combined with other known vegetable Tonics, having great power over the uterine organs; with Black Root to act upon the Liver and Bowels, and Soluble Citrate of Iton to correct the blood, he has formed a wonderful ombination for the cure of all Female Complaints, considering it the only Female Regu-lator known; and now offers this valuable com round to the afflicted tenale, under the name

English Female Bitters.

The Medical Profession at large, have long felt the need of just such a medicine, consequently it is not strange that they so eagerly rescribe and recommend these Bitters to their emale patients.

It you could see the pile of smilling appro vals and encomiums from physicians and the public who baye cured their wires, their daughters and their friends, by the use of these Bitters, no sickly female would hegitate to use them. This Female Regulator is adapted for old, young, married or single temales who acuteor chronic forms of Uterine derangements. They cute painful, suppressed, scanty, profuse or irregular Menstruation, chlorosis or Green Siceness, Albus or Whites, Hysterics, Falling of the Womb, Ulceration and Irritability of the Womb, pain in the side back or loins, sick Headsche, palpitation or flutter-ing of the Heart, hurried Breathing, swimming of the Head, cold Feet and Hands, loss of Appetite, Indigestion, Wakefulness, Barenness, physical Prostration eet., eet. Many of these are relieved by the use of only one

Females, fater confinement and convalesconts from any debilitating complaint, who petite, are at once aroused and strengthened by fleir use. As a Family Tonic for men, woman and children, it has no equal. One tablespeonful contains more medical propertles, than one bottle of any of the common and pleasant "dilute alcohol" bitters, to be found all over the country When the mabufactures of the common beverages of the day say they cure all diseases, they well know they are "pulling the wool" over your eyes, and laugh at your stupid ty in being so easily humbugged whenever the article smacks of whisky. It you really desire a valuable Iron and Vegetable Tonic for yourself and tamily, one bottle of K. F. B. will last longer and do more good than one dozen of the ordinary "grog shop" bitters, as one tablespoonful in water, is culficient for a whole family.

A Eemale Regulator,

It has no equal on this continert, acting pow erfully and promtiy in all cases, were no or gaute lesion exists. It is just the medicine for young girls, who have some difficulty in for young girls, who have some difficulty in retainging the bloom on the cheeks, and who do not feel exactly right. For the mother at the "change of hite" it soothes and quiets until the critical period is passed, as sweetly as it enjoying the brightest beams of opal ray, flitting thorugh the air of oriental climes. The medicine is sold at the low price of $1,50 per Bottle, or six for $8,00, and can be had of all Druggists and Merchants throughout the Country, Address
